A Comparison.

The following appeared in the Boston Transcript of the 14th inst:

"To the Financial Editor of the Trans cript—The relative market value of some of the leading copper shares at present suggests a comparison or two. The Cal-umet and Hecia undoubtedly will be able to pay $20 a year dividends on the basis to pay $20 a year dividends on the basis of the present market value for copper. But this is hardly seven per cent on the investment at the selling price of the shares today. The Boston & Montana, with an annual output of from 50 per cent to 60 per cent that of the Calumet and Hecia, it is expected will pay $8 dividends in 1896, which would be equal to nearly 12 per cent on the market price of the shares. From data available I think that Boston & Montana easily could do so on a 9 cent market for copthink that Boston & Montana easily could do so on a 9 cent market for copper. Placing this stock in the same class with Calumet and Hecla, it would bring it up to 110 115 at a 7 per cent stock. I figure that the Boston & Montana can produce copper laid down at New York at 6 cents per pound, and that the Calumet and Hecla can do the same. The Boston & Montana is earning very largely and having taken time by the forelock, sold heavily of its product in advance sold heavily of its product in advance when the market for copper was considerably higher than at present. It seems fair to assume that it is earning fully $13 per annum, and the impression is that shareholders may reasonably expect an extra dividend in addition to the $8 annual disbursement.

The market for copper is nominally 10 cents and shows a tendency to go lower in the absence of any active demand or per. The idea of saying that it could calumet and Hecla 7 cents to produce copper is too preposterous, when the Collect can produce and lay down cop-

EDITORIAL.

Do Not Ank for Too Much.

It is amusing to see bow some people hange about. A short time ago the NEWS, when it was proposed to take one of the delegates at large as well as lieu tenent governor from Houghton county. and seeing also the possibility that the same county might wish to bring the name of one of its residents forward for ember of congress, stated that if Houghton county asked too much it cer-tainly would get left. The Marquette Mining Journal then reminded the News there was plenty of time to call attention to such matters. Since then two of Houghton county's residents, for we understand Mr. O. W. Robinson is in the ield, have come forward as candidates for the nomination of representative to congress. The people, or rather the politicians, of Houghton county have placed themselves exactly in the position of warned them. The Marquette Journal, seeing the action now taken may play into the hands of some Marquette county man. now agrees with the statement formerly made by the News and is no way backward in stating, which certainly is a truth, "it will hardly happen that the delegates at large allowed to this district, the Upper Peninsula nominee on the State ticket and the candidate for congress will be taken from the same county, hence some of the Houghton county gentlemen who are out after political recognition this year are likely to get disappointed." The republicans of this county should, we think, get together and agree upon which of the positions they will make a republicans of the Upper Peninsula will agree to let this county gobble up all three of them. The question as to whether the present member of congress for this district will ask for a renomination has, we think, not yet been answered.

MARQUETTE COUNTY.

MARQUETTE.

Mr. S. A. Kearns, of Chicago, has obtained the contract for building the ore dock at Presque Isle in connection with the Ishpeming & Marquette railroad. Work on it will commence at once and be pushed forward with all dispatch so as, if possible, to have it ready for use by the time the railroad is completed. Mr. Kearns and family will take up their residence here, having hired the Larke place, during the progress of the work.

ISHPEMING The school board find there is nothing like a truant officer to bring the hoodlums to book, for since Deputy Marshal Nolan, who knows all Ishpeming's bad boys, was appointed to that office behas gathered in very many of the street loafers. Supt. Hardy says there are more than 700 children who should be attending school, but who are conspicuous by their absence.

Lieutenant Thielman, of the Calumet Light Guard, was here on Wednesday and visited the spot where Private Heimes was killed by a falling tree. He found the mound monument, erected by the deceased's comrades, in much about the support. The author of a recent catechetical article in a New York mining journal should become better posted before attempting to teach a class on copper. The idea of saying that it costs Private Heimes' memory in the cemetery same condition as it was when the soldier at Calumet.

port, is doing nicely. He is attending school regularly and is now at the head of his class and shows much fondness for music, being quite a good singer. Darby is well looked after, the Calumet Light Guard paying his board, while Lieut. Thielman keeps him supplied with books and clothing. Darby has quite a nice little sum to his credit in one of the banks. He lately had his portrait taken and from its sale, which he sold at 50 cents a copy, realized more than $50. A shed behind the Robbins block caught fire on Tuesday evening, but the flames were soon extinguished; not, however, before half of the shed and some of its contents, a box of straw hats and rubbers, valued at about $25, were destroyed.

Mr. Frank P. Mills bes resigned the agency of the Cleveland and Iron Cliffs mines and will leave here with his family very shortly for Colorado Springs, having obtained a very lucrative position in

On Thursday morning an accident occurred at the open pit of the Cleveland Co.'s lake mine, by which Swan Erickson was instantly killed and his partner, Andrew Aho, seriously and perhaps fatally hurt, as his back is broken beside receiving other injuries. The two men were working immediately under where the frost had caused a crack in the hanging. An attempt was made to loosen the ground by blasting, but only some of the dirt came down. The men were requested by Capt. Buzzo to leave off work until the loose ground was taken down and they did so, but for some reason returned to their work and almost immediately several tons of dirt fell burying them up with the results given above. Erickson leaves a wife and four children. Abo is a single man.

NEGAUNES.

All the fee owners are not so exorbitantly greedy as those of the Queen mine, for Messrs. Barasa & Marchette have reduced the royaly on the Barasa property from 35 cents to 25 cents and as the Barasa fron mining company has paid all claims against it, work, thanks to the decency of the above named gentlemen, will probably be resumed. The Barasa is on the same vein as the Negaunce mine and it is expected that it will pay well to work. The ore, which was located by means of a diamond drill is less than 500 feet from the surface. The old shaft ran into a quick-saud and in consequence it is prepared to abandon that and to sink one to the north and which it is expected will be started with at once and so give employment to a few men thrown out of employment by the greed of the fee owners of the Queen.

The agency for the Western express company has been transferred from M.
